Re: United States v. Blaise Caroleo, 16-MJ-911
Second Application to Modify Bail Conditions

Your Honor:

I respectfully write to request an Order for a Modification of Bond Conditions. Mr. Caroleo currently is released pursuant to bond that restricts the inhabitants of his home to him and his wife. Mr. Caroleo's son, Nicholas Joseph Caroleo is of adult age and able to help with the bills for the family home as Mr. Caroleo and his wife are struggling at the present time if he is allowed to reside there. I have consulted with Pretrial and Government concerning this issue. Pretrial takes no position. The government will consent so long as Mr. Nicholas Joseph Caroleo agrees to the conditions of not allowing Mr. Blaise Caroleo to have interaction with his grandson and use of the internet. Mr. Nicholas Joseph Caroleo has signed a declaration attached to this request to that effect which has been reviewed by the government. I respectfully request a modification of bail conditions such that Mr. Nicholas Joseph Caroleo may reside at Mr. Blaise Caroleo's residence at 224 Wild Avenue, Staten Island, NY 10314.

Respectfully Submitted,

/s/
